Glenn Epting Interior Design

This room has become a retreat for the soon-to-be college graduate to enjoy during her time spent at home. It is inviting with its warm earth tones of moss greens and burnt oranges. When you enter, you will notice the walls and trim are the same color to quiet the room while adding a southern touch with the dark baseboards. Soft, unlined sheers at the windows let the wonder of the outdoors tiptoe into the room. The bedding adds a touch of maturity mixed in with a bit of whimsy.

The paisley fabric is fun and inviting with its shades of orange, green and lavender. There are feminine details in the soft shape of the roman shades and the small box pleats on the bed skirt. Playing on her youthfulness are a tortoise mirror and fun animal print. Juxtaposing this whimsy is a custom-designed vanity. Notice the wonderful mix of antiques and custom pieces that marry this young lady's love of family treasures and her transition into life after college.

Upstairs Sitting Room

FIOFAN PICHARDO, OwenLawrence

The color scheme, fabric textures and beautiful decorative arts all combine to form a unified design in this sitting room. The design goal was to create a room that is both inviting and relaxing. The space is a perfect place to recenter yourself after a hectic day or gather with a special someone to converse.
